VI – SHIPMENT/DELIVERY OF DOCUMENTS/FILES AND COPIES

A) BRANCHES– LITERATURE AND NONFICTION

6. The competing works in the Branches – Literature and nonfiction MUST be sent only electronically, through a platform available on the website www.premiojabuti.org.br or www.premiojabuti.com.br.

6.1 Those files must obey the following specifications:

6.1.1 Individual works (published digitally or printed,) must be sent in a complete PDF file, (one file only) through an upload on the submission platform, to be exclusively accessed by the Award organizing team, by the auditor and by the judges belonging to the specified category.

6.1.2 In the case of a series with more than one file, an upload in the entry platform must be made of all the files that are part of the work and they should be sent in PDF so they can be exclusively accessed by the organizing team of the award, auditor and by the judges of the category.

6.2 The file must contain the whole work (from cover to the back cover, including: title page and/or copyright page with the publication year of the first edition, CIP data, body of the book and colophon/publisher's imprint).

6.2.1 Works whose textual content is integrated with multimedia, interactive or hypertext elements that contain ISBN and CIP data, according to item 1.2 from these guidelines, can be part of the Jabuti Award.

6.2.2 The submission will be valid only if the responsible for it sends the link to access the work, with active login and password as well as the necessary orientations for it. All the information must be in a PDF single file so that the upload can be made at the moment of submission at www.premiojabuti.org.br or www.premiojabuti.com.br.

6.2.3 If the orientations sent do not allow access to the work itself in devices commonly used in Brazil, the submission will be cancelled without refund which covers operational costs.

6.3 The complete file of the work must be sent at the moment of submission.

6.4 The substitution of the already file sent will not be permitted after payment.

6.5 The responsible for the submission should read and accept the Authorization Term allowing CBL to give access of the submitted books in PDF to the organizing team, auditor and the judges of its category.

6.6 The submitted works that do not comply with these guidelines will be disqualified, without the right of getting back the entry fee, which covers administrative expenses.

6.7 All the information sent and received via Jabuti Award platform will be with encrypted and safe protocol (HTTP/SSL) through digital certificates issued by a Certifying Entity recognized in the digital market.

6.8 When fulfilling the book's details, besides the mandatory files described (items 6.1 and 6.2), the responsible for the submission may include an image file (photo or video) in the field "COMPLEMENTARY CONTENT" to show the interaction between the graphic project and the text (frequent feature in submitted works of the categories: Children and Art, among others)

6.13 The submission of the books within the Branch – Editorial Production will only be confirmed if the printed copies and the entry form are received by CBL within ten calendar days after the registration date at the platform.

6.14 The printed books that do not comply with the guidelines in their categories will be disqualified, without the right of getting back the copies or the entry fee, which covers administrative expenses.

C) BRANCH - INNOVATION

6.15 The books and initiatives from the categories “Promotion of Reading” and “Brazilian Book Published Abroad” which are part of the Branch – Innovation, should be registered at www.premiojabuti.org.br or www.premiojabuti.com.br as long as the forms are complete with register data, specific forms for each of the categories and the payment of the entry fees.

VII THE COMPOSITION OF THE JURY AND THE VOTING SYSTEM

7. The works registered in each category will be analyzed in one only phase by a body of three specialist judges in the Branches covered by the category.

7.1 The panel of judges will be appointed by the editorial market, readers and interested in applying for the jury according to a public consultation between May 06th, 2021 and June 06th, 2021.

7.2 Professionals appointed to be judges cannot have exclusive connection with the publisher/author, work or initiative submitted in any category of the 63rd Jabuti Award.

7.3 They cannot be related to any persons who are competing for the Award.

7.4 The Curator Board shall ratify the names of the judges and it will receive the indication and the application of the judges and will verify the veracity of the information as well as selecting them.

7.5 Judges will not know each other's identities, and they will only be publicly disclosed by CBL, in alphabetical order, after the verification and validation of the scores inserted in the system by a third-party auditing company which works with the 63rd Jabuti Award – and this means the conclusion of the process of analyzing the submitted works.

7.6 The judges of the categories Cover (3.15), Illustration (3.16), and Graphic Project (3.17) will receive, in a given address, the books registered in the category and they are responsible for checking the set of works with the list that accompanies it and inform CBL of any discrepancy.

7.6.1 The judges of the category Translation (3.18) will access the 63rd Jabuti Award on the platform in order to read the books. Yet, they can also receive, in a given address, the original printed works submitted in the category and they are responsible for checking the set of works with the list that accompanies it and inform CBL of any discrepancy.

7.7 All judges will evaluate competing works and projects through safe, electronic, and individual access on Jabuti Award Platform.

VIII – THE VOTING SYSTEM

8. The judges will be responsible for selecting finalists of each category of Jabuti Award through the following procedures and steps:

8.1 The evaluation of the works in each category will be made in one phase only.

8.1.1 Each judge will choose thirteen (exactly thirteen) books among those submitted in the category of which they are judges to which they must give different scores.

8.1.2 All the judges' scores that do not select only and exclusively thirteen finalists or promote/allow a tie between the selected ones will be invalidated.

8.1.3 Each judge will assign scores from 7.0 (seven) to 10.0 (ten), with intervals of 0.25 (twenty-five hundredths) to each of the works.

8.2 The judges undertake to assign different scores in all criteria related to the works they select.

8.3 If there is a tie between two or more works voted by the panel of the judges, the tie-breaking criteria will be the highest score in the first evaluated criteria and so on and so forth.

8.4 After the scores' compatibility of the (13) thirteen selected books by the judge (according to 8.1.1), ten titles with the highest score will be selected and they will be the ten prefinalists of each category.

8.5 If there is a tie from the tenth place, the work(s) with the same score(s) will also be classified as prefinalist(s).

8.6 The 10 (ten) prefinalists of each category will be alphabetically published on the official website of Jabuti Award.

8.7 Subsequently, a list with the 5 (five) books with the highest scores will be published. The names of the books will necessary be in alphabetical order according to the title.

8.8 If there is a tie from the fifth place, the work(s) with the same score(s) will also be classified among the five finalists.
